

Industrial Visit

Civil Engineering Department

LJ Polytechnic, Civil Engineering Department organize a industrial visit for 2nd semester students. Where students learned about the construction procedure of buildings and they have seen how the equipments works on the construction site. They got the detailed knowledge about frame works, stirrups, beam, columns, slab, curing and get practical exposure.

